Month & Day, Year

Hi,

Thank you for taking time out to read this.

If you don't know me, my name is Shiloh, I'm 18 years old, and this July 17-23rd I have an opportunity to attend TLT Conference (short for Tomorrow's Leaders Today Conference).

TLT Conference is a 7-day/6-night life-changing experience for teens who are looking for positive IMPACT in their life. The program is designed with hands-on training activities for young adults to grow while being immersed in SEL (social-emotional learning). It's led by an excellent team of faculty, mentors, support staff, and incredible guest speakers!

TLT Candidates are trained with a values-based curriculum covering topics such as:

- Life Skills for Social & Emotional Maturity
- Identity Purpose, Vision, Mission
- Character Development, Integrity & Honor
- Communication Tools, Personality Types
- Relationships Enrichment
- Team building, Conflict resolution
- Money matters and Entrepreneurism
- Contribution and Serving Leadership
- More...

The Elev8Life educational foundation provides a 50% scholarship to TLT Candidates like me! Then candidates and IMPACT TEAM members, who serve all week at the event, participate in a big team effort to raise the remaining 50% for TLT's registration.

I'm going for the challenge of raising $999. That will only happen with support of visionary sponsors like you who would sow into the lives of future leaders like me! Would you please consider supporting my fundraiser?

There are a few convenient Fundraising Donation Options:

- TEXT - TLTIMPACT to #855-202-2100
- VIDEO - Scholarship Raffle page *NOTE: reference my name
- EMAIL - Elev8Programs@gmail.com *NOTE: reference my name
- CHECK - Made Out and Mailed to Elev8Life, 6820 NW 34th Ave, Ft Lauderdale, FL 33309 *NOTE: write my name on the memo line*

Thank you for considering making an IMPACT in my life through your tax-deductible donation. I am looking forward to training with other candidates and becoming a TLT-Tomorrow's Leaders Today!

Sincere THANKS, Shiloh

Dress for Success Code

"Average" teens are underestimated & rarely taken seriously!

Elev8Life is determined to change that by training TLT-Tomorrow's Leaders Today to rise above "average".

A unique distraction-free clothing environment has intentionally been created, where others can get to know the "real you" while building respectful relationships.

Your cooperation will allow you, other TLT Candidates and the IMPACT Team to enjoy our time together!

As you pack, we ask that you embrace the Dress for Success guidelines as an Important aspect of your TLT Conference experience.

The atmosphere at TLT CON is super charged with positivity and exciting possibility! Let's keep it that way by not making "resistance" to the Dress for Success code an issue.

You are awesome no matter what you wear!

CLOTHING GUIDELINES

Q: What kind of clothes do I need for the week?

A: You will need mostly comfy casual things, 2 dressy casual things to wear & yes, even 1 business casual set of clothes. This is a leadership experience, right? Think loose but not too loose to be revealing. Remember you will be in an air conditioned & often cold environment so pack a snuggly hoodie or sweater.

Q: Are there things I should not pack?

A: So glad you asked! Here are some "what to leave at home" items...

GUYS: cut-up muscle tanks/clothing with see-through holes or rips with skin showing through above the knee

GIRLS: TOPS – strapless, thin spaghetti straps (unless worn under something), see-through, skin-tight, reveals cleavage (when standing or bending over), shows mid-drift/stomach area (especially when arms are raised) BOTTOMS – skintight yoga pants/leggings/skinny jeans (unless worn with a shirt that is fingertip length), shorts or rompers shorter than fingertip length with arms by your sides & shoulders lowered), holes or rips with skin showing through above the knee

Q: What kind of bathing suit should I pack?

A: This is a doozy of a question, especially for Florida people! Guys & girls, please take note to pack what you need.

GUYS: pair a tank top with swim shorts covering bare chest & stomach. Hey, its only fair since girls like to admire skin and muscles just as much as guys do.

GIRLS: think sporty not sexy (tank top with board shorts or tankini with swim skirt works great to not draw attention to cleavage, stomach, and rear)

Q: Will anyone really notice or do anything if I choose to ignore the "Dress For Success" guidelines at TLT CON??

A: Touchy subject, wouldn't you say? You should know that IMPACT Team members have the authority and responsibility to help you "Dress for Success."

TLT Candidates will be asked to change immediately, or in certain situations, appropriate coverage will be provided.

STEP FIVE
